

Cry No More

Poco

Sometimes it seems like
You lose when you win
I know just how hard it can be
You take what you have to
And give all you can
But it's just a sad memory

So cry no more
What do you want to cry for
Tears only wash to the shore
So cry no more

I am a fine one

To talk about cryin'
I've cried some tears of my own
And one thing for certain When teardrops start falling
The heartache won't leave you alone
