

If You Can't Stand To Lose

Poco

If you can't stand to lose
Don't stand in the way
Hey, don't you think it's time to say it
Tell her the truth
Don't be afraid
To tell her she's the only one
It's alright, if you're feelin' like
There's something that you need to say
'Cause the only words she hasn't heard
Are the very ones
That stand in your way
So just let your heart tell you
What's on your mind
Even though you're afraid
Of what you might find
