

Let Me Turn Back to You

Poco

I don't know you but I can feel you
In all the ways you get through these days
Bluer than blue
You're throwin' your dreams up they all come fallin' down
Then you turn away It's another day
And it seems you're earthly bound

There is doubt in your eyes in ehat you say
And what you want to do
I want to be a surprise can you see it
In my eyes, oh
Let me turn back to you

Out in the light of the dark
There is always left a spark
And would it be all right
Can I see you tonight?
Oh let me turn back to you

I never questioned a smile
Only lasting for a while
Someone must play the fool
If there's a fire in your heart
Then it's time for us to start
Let me turn back to you

Out in the light of the dark
There is always left a spark
And would it be all right
Can I see you tonight?
Oh let me turn back to you
Let me turn back to you
Oh let me turn back to you
Let me turn back to you.
