

Love Has No Reason

Poco

Love has no reason
Doesn't need one
Love only knows
Love has no reason
Doesn't need one
That's the way love goes

Life used to be nice and simple
Nothin' tying me down
Thought I had it all figured out
Then you came around

Don't know what I thought I was thinkin'
But you changed my mind
Now nothin' makes sense to me
And baby that's just fine

I don't know if you'll break my heart
I don't even care
Guess I knew once this whole thing started
We could wind up anywhere

Maybe there's an explanation
Maybe there's not
Maybe we should both hold on
To what we've got
