

Makin' Love

Poco

I wish I could say
All my fears fall away
With the sands in the hourglass
But you know it ain't so

I'm holdin' on tight
'Cause I know when it's right
There'll be a woman
Burnin' in my soul

Don't you know I can feel it
Feel it deep inside
Pretty soon you'll find it
Sowin' in my eyes

I can't help from feelin'
You and I were meant for makin' love

You're on my mind
And it seems that I'm
Thinkin' of moments
Alone with you

Hard as it seems
You can see what it means
Woman you know I'm
Losin' my heart
