

Never Loved...Never Hurt Like This

Poco

Yes, I was careless with my heart
You'd think I'd know
Falling, that's the easy part
I just let go
I'd never given everything
But you were worth that risk
I've never loved, I've never hurt like this
I play the scene back in my head
Goes 'round and 'round
There was so much I left unsaid
It's too late now
If you were here I'd bare my soul,
And the first words from my lips
I've never loved, I've never hurt like this
A thousand emotions
That's what you've given me
From heartbreak to devotion
Every shade that love can be
I know I'll move beyond regret
I won't give up
Still, it's my heart that won't forget
It knows too much
My lowest low, my highest high
In a single good-bye kiss
I've never loved, I've never hurt like this
