

Nothin' To Hide

Poco

Cryin' doesn't ease the pain
When the fire is gone, when the weak break the strong
There's no danger, when a heart is cold
But if I stay alone, mine will soon turn to stone

I know, girl you're not the only one
Who's lookin' for someone to hold

The look in your eyes ain't the same anymore
Somethin' has changed deep inside
We both know it's right, what are we waitin' for?
There's no holdin' back
'Cause with you I've got nothin' to hide

Sleepin' on a bed of lies
I've been lonely too long now the hurt is all gone
You were waitin' for me to come around
How could I be so blind not to see in your mind?

And your heart, you've always been the only one
Believin' in me all along

Girl, the look in your eyes ain't the same anymore
Somethin' has changed deep inside
We both know it's right, what are we waitin' for?
There's no holdin' back
'Cause with you I've got nothin' to hide

Girl, the look in your eyes ain't the same anymore
Somethin' has changed deep inside
We both know it's right, what are we waitin' for?
There's no holdin' back
'Cause with you I've got nothin' to hide
