Poco

Too tough to handle, too much to hold
She goes round and round and round and round, the girl runs hot and cold

What you gonna do when she's tired of you?

Reputation, mmm, reputation

Run like the devil or sink like a stone
You'll go down and down and down and down and wind up on your own

You're not the first to fall, it's happened to us all

She's too tough to handle, too much to hold
She goes round and round it's all over town, but you just can't let her go

She's got a reputation, everybody's talkin' 'bout my baby
