

Whatever Happened To Your Smile

Poco

You said you'd walk up to me any day
You'd come a laughing all the while.
You'd sit by me and we'd talk about today.
whatever happened to your smile?

Keeping your word you've come to me like
A stray.
Now I've been witness to a trial
And I feel as though it was only yesterday
Whatever happened to your smile?

Whatever happened to your smile?
The look upon your face,
The sparkle in your eyes?
The way you'd laugh, but for a while.
Whatever happened to your smile?
Whatever happened to your smile?

I do believe that you will not allow

Yourself to feel like a child
And I know it's hard to live for the
Here and now
But, whatever happened to your smile?

Now that you've come I guess you'll be
On your way
And you'll be travellin' many a mile.
But when you're back i hope that I won't
Have to say
Whatever happened to your smile?

Whatever happened to your smile?
The look upon your face,
The sparkle in your eyes?
The way you'd laugh, but for a while.
Whatever happened to your smile?
Whatever happened to your smile?
