Errant Souls

Poema Arcanus

The night pierces in your eyes This reality touches your soul Desires and fears cover your heart Those dreams that keep you alive

The beauty is so fragile So little the beautiful Just a dream hidden Under death's cloak

..... Life is a moment into death ...

Chorus : We're just errant souls Lonely and painful Is our wandering Along this cold world

Eternity keeps you awake Only illusions give you life Just shining spheres Into our dark spectre

Immerse in a sea of lies False image is what you are A point in this black infinity Forgotten creature in the land of emptyness

Chorus
