

Gravity

Poets of the Fall

Here at the station
Standing in the rain
Lost in my train of thought
Looking around for a better time again
But yesterday ain't running on this track

Unpredictable fortune, my past
Lights up my future
At last, ending my torture

Like gravity like love,
You get up after you fall
Like gravity like love
I'm not afraid anymore
Like gravity like love,
You get up after you fall
I ain't afraid no more

Out of no reason I've decided to stay
Present a solution to the problem,
Typical of me, that I concentrate on the destination
So much that I miss the journey there and back

Unpredictable fortune
My past, lights up my future
At last, ending my torture

Like gravity like love,
You get up after you fall
Like gravity like love
I'm not afraid anymore
Like gravity like love,
You get up after you fall
I ain't afraid no more

If gravity was love, if gravity was love
If gravity was love...
