

Aloha Honolulu

Poi Dog Pondering

Aloha, Honolulu, here I come with some friends of mine
Half of them the Hawaiian kind
The other half just need a little sunshine
On the isle of Oahu, the day is just begun
Relax is number one
"Don't rush me haole, there's plenty of sun"
"Did you bring the lotion? You know your skin is awful white"
Yeah, I brought the lotion, spread it on my broad daylight.
Now I'm free sky stylin on the shiny island
all the peoples smilin', and brother let me tell ya I'm smilin' too.
