

Apologies

Pointed Sticks

I always thought
That you could trust your closest friends
I should have known
Never to depend

I heard it everywhere (What did they say?)
Why don't you tell the truth (Apologies)

If you say I'm okay that's one thing
If you say I'm a jerk that's one thing
I just wish you could tell me something

You never thought
That this could happen over night
I know you worship
All the latest guided lines

You should think about it (What did I say?)
Before you talk about it (Apologies)

If you say I'm okay that's one thing
If you say I'm a jerk that's one thing
I just wish you could tell me something

If you say I'm okay that's one thing
If you say I'm a jerk that's one thing
I just wish you could tell me something

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh
