

Part Of The Noise

Pointed Sticks

I've been up all night waiting for you to come home
It gets on my nerves and I don't know why you haven't phoned me
It's nearly four a.m.

Part of the noise, it's driving me crazy
The dark beats time with the rock n' roll tap
Your voice is music for me
But these noises are so frustrating

I just wanna go to sleep
I don't wanna worry about you and all of your problems
But I'm sorry
It's all just part of the noise to me, it's all just part of the noise to me

When I need a radiator drippin' the tap
Baby, your sounding just like that

I've been up all night waiting for you to come home
It gets on my nerves and I don't know why you haven't phoned me
It's nearly four a.m.

Part of the noise, it's driving me crazy
The dark beats time with the rock n' roll tap
Your voice is music to me
