

Girls Over There

Poison Girls

Their bite is as lethal as a Hollywood dream
The slave owner's daughters are not what they seem
The girls over there
have stolen my words

Their mouths are as cheap as dead baby birds Their voices are empty though frequently heard
The girls over there
have stolen my words
The dollar dollies jive and wiggle their fannies Those rich girls are smooth as their daddies' money
The girls over there
have stolen my words

There's a honey pie chorus for the famous in Frisco So boogie on down there baby to the Yankee girls' disco
The girls over there
have stolen my words

There's a baby in dollsville mama wearing baby doll pyjamas
She's so cute and she's got the loot There's a fairy dollsville mama
wearing baby doll pyjamas
She's got the loot to buy up poor boy's bananas

The girls over there
have stolen my words
