Poison Girls

You're so other
You turn me on so strange
You plunge me in so deep
Lurch me out of my made up mind
You're such another kind

You're so other
You turn me on so strange
Plunge me in so deep
Plunge me in to the heart of me
You creep me in my sleep

You're so other
You fall me or did you push
You shook me off my tree
Lurched me out of my made up mind
You swam me out to sea
You're so other
You're so white so pale
As you lie on my dark skin
You're from the other side
No familiarity to ease me in

You're so other
You turn me on so strange
You move me along my skin
You're from an other side
Sensuality to tease me in

Will you be my lover
I have loved another
But none so other
