

Political Love

Poison Girls

I'm politically in love with you, politically in love
You mean my whole life to me, I'm a prisoner of love
I'll release my locked lust with you, animal in my brain
I must put my trust in you, take you in my pain

No time for tenderness, no room for delight
Angry screams and loneliness, interrupt the night
The voices that keep us, in shit and alone
They're our bastards sweetheart, but they can't keep us at home

I've lost that Disney feeling
Where has it gone
I've lost that Bambi spangle
Gone gone gone...

Our love is no privilege, no romantic dream
We embrace, our faces twisted, the masses are between us
Keep writing your letters, I find them on a wall
The war isn't over yet, we're waiting for the call up

I'm critically in love with you, critically in love
You mean my whole life to me, I'm a prisoner of love
I'll release my locked lust with you, animal in my brain
I must put my trust in you, take you in my pain.

I've lost that Disney feeling
Where has it gone
I've lost that Bambi spangle
Gone gone gone...
