

Promenade Immortelle

Poison Girls

Strong with the strength of all that has gone and all that will change Strong with the strength of the longing and pain That flows through our veins Strong we are strong with the rage of the past And all that will fade
Strong we are strong with wave upon wave
Of change after change

Strong with the strength of the dreams that we made That fall and fade
Strong with the strength of the hurt and the words Our lips never gave Strong we are strong with the sport of the game
The loss and the gain
Strong we are strong with wave upon wave
Of change and desire AND WE HAVE SURVIVED AND WE STAND HERE AGAIN

Lust and lies and the love that we made of our lust and lies Trust that we gave for another new start when it all fell apart
The beating of thighs and the love we made with the meeting of eyes the beating of hearts for another new start

Strong we are strong
like the river of death that runs from our veins Strong we are strong with the strength of our minds And the hope that remains
Strong with the strength
of wave upon wave of age after age
Strong with the strength of the hands the feet
That will stand here again

AND WE ARE BUT YOUNG AND WE STAND HERE AGAIN
