

Rockface

Poison Girls

I could tell you it was hard
The cold that numbs, the rock that stuns
I could tell you it was hard
Clinging to the bare rockface

I could talk of agony
Tell you about the angry times
Nowhere to rest, no peace, no place
Clinging to the bare rockface

I could tell you how it was hard
The cold that chills, the rock that kills
I could tell you how it was hard
Clinging to the bare rockface

But I'd rather tell you I've come home
To my body's needs and loves embrace
I'm someone, I'm beautiful
I can show my face

I'm someone, I'm beautiful
I'll show my face
Show me your face my love
My face is bare
My face is bare
