

Taken By Surprise

Poison Idea

Of all the torment I've been through,
I never knew hell till I met you
Your imperious aura, your needs understood
You wouldn't tell me the truth if you could,
But in the back room, a garden of delight
Cut through the bar just like a fist fight

For a moment I thought I saw something in your eyes
That's when I was taken by surprise

Soul of washrag, show no sadness,
Face of poker, show no fears
Overwhelming, you show no mercy,
Mediocre, show no tears

Now this party's crazy, I gotta go
But before I leave, I gotta know
That night in the room full of violent screams,
When you whispered me your secret dreams
As we both laid there on the floor,
You said it takes two to start a war

For a moment I thought I saw something in your eyes
That's when I was taken by surprise

Soul of washrag, show no sadness
Face of poker, show no fears
Overwhelming, you show no mercy
Mediocre, show no tears

For a moment I thought I saw something in your eyes
That's when I was taken by surprise

Soul of washrag, show no sadness
Face of poker, show no fears
Overwhelming, you show no mercy
Mediocre, show no tears
