

Livin' In The Now

Poison

Got no time to think about good intentions
Got no time to think about indiscretions
Don't want to think about past reflections
Don't want to think about tomorrow

Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright
Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright

A little unsure today
Lock you in a cage
Unkind thing to say
Flies into a rage

Everyday is shorter then the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor

Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright
Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright

It's so easy to offend
When venom is your friend
Wounds can never mend
And you don't try

Everyday is shorter then the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor

Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright
Cuz I'm living in the now, yea
Hold tight, it'll be alright

Now you watch me bleed
Cuz you never did believe me
Only to decieve with just one lie

Everyday is shorter then the day before
Saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor
