

I'm in need of therapy
Fucked up inside
I cannot hold it in, no more

I am breathing misery
Bursting out pure rage
I am throwing up it all

What if I'd let you in, threw to the wolves and showed you the darkest corner here
What if I'd gave a fuck and spoke the truth- Would it be too mu ch for you to hear?

I dare you to tear me apart

Come, explode inside my head and break these walls of pain
Reign the mayhem inside
Be the last rites to the dead, the-rapist of my brain
Mind-fuck me alive

My brain hurts

The pills I've swallowed
To try and numb the pain
Feeling a whole lotta nothing

Completely hollow
Yet full of shit
To be freed I'd give anything

The smell of feces splattered everywhere, hate-diarrhea severe Thoughts hacked to pieces without a care, with an axe I wave in here
