

Lay Your Heart to Rest

Poisonblack

I've fallen from grace into the kingdom of shadowlands into the pleasure's nest This pale death on my face I've come to love and understand when I laid my heart to rest

And I believe in one thing forevermore, to live is to love the pain
And I feel like I never felt before, the rapture of dying

Slow, deep and hard through your frail and virgin mind will flow ist lifeless zest Take it in your heart and you will become my kind just lay your heart to rest

And you believe in one thing forevermore, to live is to love pa in
And you feel like you never felt before, the rapture of dying
And you believe in one thing forevermore, to live is to love pa
in
And you feel like you never felt before, the rapture of dying
