

Pull The Trigger

Poisonblack

Your suffering ends, no matter what you do
There's no escape, soon it will be through
Payback will come, consequence is sealed
It won't expire it won't yield

Now don't you try and repent
Don't you dare to deceive
Cause not a single world you will believe
Just go ahead

Everyone waits for you to pull the trigger
Everyone's cheering for you
The shit you drown yourself in is getting thicker
So don't let them down
They're all counting on you

You licked them clean, the bones they threw
Laughed through the tears while playing the fool
Hey, my friend you're gone, in too deep
Your sad existence is now theirs to keep

Keep bullshitting them, yourself you can't anymore
You know how it ends you know the score
So, go ahead
