

The Dead-End Stream

Poisonblack

Flowers in bloom
It's a beautiful day
Headed for doom
Destruction and decay

Stare at the sun
Feel its warm rays of light
Nowhere to run
We've already lost the fight

Hand in hand we wait this all to end

Everything died-Withers away
There's no afterlife
Nothing's here to stay
Hope is a lie we in vain beg and pray
While floating down the dead-end stream until it's time to drown away

Life is so sweet
So seize the day
But destiny's sealed
Soon to pine away

Enjoy while you can Breathe in breathe out
But try and understand
The only way is out

Gun in hand we wait this all to end

No one gets out of here alive-No one comes back to testify
So enjoy while you can my child-
We only got this one time
