

Hi Siouxsie Jeanne
The light in here is softening
It's a while before 2 am
No one will see us talking

Hi Siouxsie

I told all the gang
I can't tonight I'm working
We don't talk like this
We don't show thin skin

I'm not you but you're me
A thought not yet a woman
Or a girl, let's say girl
Forever we'll say girl

Just as soon as you can
We'll be taking movies
Last was mine so this pick's yours
Feel the serene when they close the doors

Damn I'm back where I was
These low lights can give way to flux
I just don't understand where it's coming from Aren't I selfish and dying young?

But you're there
And it hurts
