Happy Be Fine

i need some time to think about my life without you to think about my life without you it seems that we'd be fine but i know when i leave you'll die i need some time to think about my life without you to think about my life without you the hardest part is knowing i'm happy i'm on the whole again knowing i'm happy it seems that we'd be fine but i know when i leave we'll die i need some time to think about my life without you the hardest part is knowing i'm happy i'm on the whole again and knowing i'm happy
