

Lose You

Poliça

So atleast now it is clear
You don't want to take it there at all
Just a holding piece
Till he feels secure
In the clouds we count our dreams
But you never mention me at all
It's hard to speak what's true
When your lips won't do
Well I cannot fuck you enough
And I wanna wake up wanting your touch
You don't want it to last
Push me off and watch it crash
What's to lose, what's to lose
Just you
What is it called
When he won't trust at all
What's to lose, what's to lose
Just you
So atleast now it is clear
You don't want to take it there at all
Just a holding piece
Till he feels secure
In the clouds we count our dreams
But you never mention me at all
Its hard to speak what's true
When your lips won't do
Well I cannot fuck you enough
And i wanna wake up wanting your touch
Please don't leave baby
Just you leave me baby
You don't want it to last
Push me off and watch it crash
What's to lose, what's to lose
Just you
And what is it called when he don't trust at all
what's to lose, what's to lose
Just you
Hey baby what's to lose
So you're leaving just to lose
And I cannot fuck you enough
And i wanna wake up wanting your touch
Please don't leave baby
Just you leave me baby
You don't want it to last
Push me off and watch it crash
Just you
Just you
