It's the middle of a matrimony
I am trying to explain it to myself
Yes, yes, I asked you
I was lost and couldn't wait my turn
I don't think you really know me
I can be a really happy child
Oh I brought you down
Oh you brought me down
I was always making plans to leave
How did I never touch your heart
Never noticed the space between us
I don't want to do that to anyone again
I'm gonna let my love ring strong till the day I'm dead, you're dead

It's the middle of a matrimony
I am trying to explain it to myself
I want my name back he wants it all back
All this touching in the dark
I don't think you heard me crying
You're not the first, you're not the last
How did I never touch your heart
Never noticed the space between us
I don't want to do that to anyone again
I'm gonna let my love ring strong till the day I'm dead, you're
dead

How did I never touch your heart
Never noticed the space between us
I don't want to do that to anyone again
I'm gonna let my love ring strong till the day I'm dead, you're
dead

It's the middle of a matrimony
I am trying to explain the story to myself
Yes, yes I asked you
Yes, yes I asked you
I was lost and so were you
How did I never touch your heart
Never noticed the space between us
I don't want to do that to anyone again
I'm gonna let my love ring strong till the day I'm dead, you're
dead
