

Tragic Carpet Ride

Polvo

Tell me about everywhere you've been
So I can hold it over your head
Tell me about everyone you've known
Memories of passionate friends
Who's in the back of your mind
Come on, there must be something you'd like to share
I won't say that nobody told me
You can never say that nobody cared
I won't get out
I'd rather burn
I won't trust scarred survivors
And I will never learn

Looking for the story of another disbeliever
Fascinated eyes open wide
Every opportunity the eager receiver
Tracing every step outside
Don't back away from me now
There's a strategy I'm willing to use
Stand in my path and I will state
Cause there's some shit that I'm willing to lose
I won't get out
I'd rather burn
I won't trust scarred survivors
And I will never learn
Tell me that you understand
Tell me why you look concerned
Tell me that you know
Or I will never learn
