

If You Think You Need Some Lovin

Pomplamoose

If you think i'll give you money,
well honey that's just funny cuz i got none.
No money, ain't got no money.
If you just want conversation go somewhere in the nation,
not my house.
But if you think you need some lovin, that's fine.
Cuz if you think you need some money,
well you can't have mine,
and if you want some conversation try a pickup line.
But if you think you need some lovin, that's fine.

If you think you need a shrink,
you're draining down the sink, go take a hike.
Ain't got no time for your baggage.
If you think you need a fix,
don't put me in the mix, just stick to wine.
Whine, wine, whine, wine, whine, wine.
But if you think you need some lovin, that's fine.
Cuz if you think you need a shrink,
well I'm out of time.
And if you think you need a fix,
I'm not the fixing kind.
But if you think you need some lovin, that's fine.
