

Little Things

Pomplamoose

Sorting all the lights and darks,
Making sure our love won't lose that spark.
You really didn't have to.

Funny pictures that you take,
Dinner out instead of shake and bake.
You really didn't have to.

Movies and magazines,
Filling our heads with dreams.
Love is the little things.
Love changes everything.

Picking me up after work,
Putting up with all my silly quirks.
You really didn't have to.

Saying that my cooking is great,
While you try to hide a stomach ache.
You really didn't have to.
