Pond

Don't be afraid of infinity
Give your love to me, Annie Orangetree
I keep a picture of Mick and Keith
To remind me of infinity

Don't be afraid of what you know
We'll grow and eat you whole
Shine a light on your desire
Embrace that you survived

Live, love could grow higher

Don't be afraid of infinity
Give your love to me, Annie Orangetree
I keep a picture of Mick and Keith
To remind me of infinity

You were sixteen years old
With hair as black as coal
Lying in the wind tonight
No fear put on our eyes

Follow in delight

Don't be afraid of infinity
Give your love to me, Annie Orangetree
I keep a picture of Mick and Keith
To remind me of infinity
