Pond

Fantastic explosion of time, you slither over the light and you
fade away
Into a splendid design when we have any moment we move every wa y

I don't wanna explode in time

Fantastic explosion of time, you slither over the light and you
fade away
Heading colossus of ice, we're riding the highways, we're going to watch Bumping the ether is hard when you got so different little type s of touch
