

Holding Out for You

Pond

What in the world ever made that young girl cry
The tears down her cheeks she tries to hide
And what of the man who passes calmly by Oh why?

Oh lies are no longer needed
He frankly conceded
I am not the way that you had hoped and prayed

I'm sorry if I've caused you any pain
But please believe me when I try to say
I feel like I am going insane oh it'll be better off this way

I was holding out for you
I was holding out for you
I was holding out for you
I was holding out for you
