

Whatever Happened to the Million Head Collide

Pond

Whatever happened when a million heads collide?

I can't say

I think and I feel so it must be real, the holiest of holies comes out so surreal

I don't care, let's do it together

Smile on the face of the gods you made

I am, you are Buddha, Krishna, God

I'm gonna sleep for a week and not speak at all

Cover myself in oil and tin foil,

Hold my breath and I'll not speak at all for a while

I heard the word and arranged the fall

So i ran into my bed and covered my head with oil and tin foil,

You're a fuck and good luck and god bless you all
