

She Sells Anger

Poni Hoax

She sells anger
And the whole world has to pay
She reeks of danger
Are these games such fun to play?

And does she seek some glory?
Or does she only seek an end?
She sells anger
She reeks of danger

She sells anger
And the whole world drags her down
She reeks of danger
So she steals her way around

And does she weep sincerely?
Or does she only pay amends?
She sells anger
She reeks of danger

She'll never say she's sorry
No one has ever seen her bend
She'll never say she's lonely
No one will ever take her hand
And is the world still watching
When she drowns herself to sleep?
Down to sleep

She sells anger
And the whole world has to pay
She reeks of danger
Are these games such fun to play?

And does she seek some glory?
Or does she only seek an end?
She sells anger
She reeks of danger

She sells anger
And the whole world drags her down
She reeks of danger
So she steals her way around

And does she weep sincerely?
Or does she only pay amends?
She sells anger
She reeks of danger

She'll never say she's sorry
No one has ever seen her bend
She'll never say she's lonely
No one will ever take her hand
And is the world still watching
When she drowns herself in dreams?
In her dreams
