

You're Gonna Miss My Love

Poni Hoax

Do you still think of me now
Or do the memories fade?
Can you still see me now, love?
I'm running on through the maze.
Do you still feel the taste
Of my love in your mouth?
Did you shift all the walls as
To reconfigure your life?

Love, love, love, love
I've got something to tell you
And I'll tell it through your dreams

You're gonna miss my love
You're gonna forget my face
You're gonna lose your grace
And fall back to your former status, baby

Do you still think of him now
Or does the novelty fade?
Have you cut through your prices
Or did you give up the trade?
Do you still need the spill
Of some love in your house.
Are you still bound to us while
Re-configuring your life?

Love, love, love, love,
I've got no more to sell you,
My goods are way too obscene.

You're gonna miss my love
You're gonna forget my face
You're gonna lose your grace
And fall back to your former status, love
