

Give Me Only This Moment

Pooh

I know you never had to speak a word I know the way you feel inside you and tho' you try to hide it there is no need denying you know it's ment to be girl.
You see you're like the other side of me we both know where it's going no use to turn away you know I'm gonna love you it's just a breath away now.
Give me only this moment lost in your magic to last me for ever let me burn in the fire and feel the desire that rages inside you
let's be reborn in this moment right now.
Give me only this moment lost in your magic
to last forever
let me burn in the fire and feel the desire
that rages inside you
and we'll be reborn for the moment right now.
And then I'll watch you slowly slip away and i won't turn to follow for us there's no tomorrow but we can have this moment to last our whole life thru girl.
Give me only this moment lost in your magic
to last forever
let me burn in the fire and feel the desire
that rages inside you
let's be reborn in this moment right now.
I know you never had to speak a word
I know the you inside you.
Love me now for this moment that we have together love me now for this moment must last forever.
love me now for this moment must last forever.
love me now for this moment must last forever.
