

Goodbye

Pooh

He left on your 20th birthday
He dumped you in front of a crowd
He said I think we should see other people
He said I'm gonna leave you now

Did he say goodbye when he kissed you
Did he close your eyes when you died
Did he leave one more moment for you to say
I love you
Did he make you cry
(Goodbye, Goodbye)

You laughed at first
Cause you thought it was a lie
You said yeah right
No way, no way, no way

Did he say goodbye when he kissed you
Did he close your eyes when you died
Did he leave one more moment for you to say
I love you
Did he make you cry
(Goodbye, Goodbye)

Your friends always said he was mean
They told you to kick him out in the street

Did he say goodbye when he kissed you
Did he close your eyes when you died
Did he leave one more moment for you to say
I love you
Did he make you cry
(Goodbye, Goodbye) (2x)

Did he make you cry
Goodbye Goodbye
Did he make you cry
Goodbye
