

Ready Get Up And Good Morning

Pooh

Ready get up and good morning
take a look at a day of forever world I'm giving you more than fair warning that I'm getting my motion together and I'm coming thru here I go.
Joggin' at five for an hour and at six do some deep meditation gonna have a good breakfast at seven and by eight i'll be down at the station I'll be at the office at nine.
Writing some words and some music turn the radio on and just listen get a winner idea and don't lose it 'cause from this moment on I'm insistin' on writing a hit song a day.
Life is a song for song writers I'm a writer of song's and i love it just in making it all come together is the boy of my life with none above it lunch break at noon and I'm ready to write on with a some new inspiration and work on till I get it completed then I pack up my things head for the station.
Back on the train for some dreamin'
I get home by a quarter to seven make a date for some dinner and groovin' then get rack into bed 'bout eleven a little tv and to sleep.
Ready get up and good morning
take a look at a day of forever
world I'm giving you more than fair warning
that I'm getting my motion together
and I'm coming thru here I go.
