

Black & Blue

Pop Evil

Don't say your not the one to blame
You dragged me through the darkness to soak up all the rain
And don't say you didn't know much better
When you knew all along the price I payed

If I could change yesterday
I would take back the time I gave to you
Start over and rise from the black and blue

Don't say you were blind through all the silence
You led me through the violence and than you turned away
They say there's going to be forgiveness
But do you witness your unholy sickness

If I could change yesterday
I would take back the time I gave to you
Start over and rise from the black and blue

You deserve retribution
You have earned my revenge
And I have held my fist and clinched my fist long enough
I won't let myself fall over you again

If I could change yesterday
I would take back the time I gave to you
Start over and rise from the black and blue

If I could change yesterday
I would take back the time I gave to you
Start over and rise from the black and blue

I don't want to live in silence
Don't say your not to blame
Your lies are all the same
And nothing will ever change

I don't want to live in violence
Don't say your not to blame
I can feel the pain
With every little word you say

I'm black and blue
