

Broken & Betrayed

Pop Evil

Why do I live my life
Inside this hell I'm into
Deeper than the darkest ocean
It's pouring down on me
Here we are once again
The truth is setting in

I'm broken and betrayed
Just tell me your leaving
Before I finally cave in
Take away this pain
It's pulling me under
Your dragging me under
Somebody save me

Break away from your twisted ways
That collide with entangled hangover
The lies that always seem to end
With your poison in my veins
Here we are once again
The truth is setting in

I'm broken and betrayed
Just tell me your leaving
Before I finally cave in
Take away this pain
It's pulling me under
Your dragging me under

I don't want to look back
I just want to start again
I don't want to look back
I just want to start again
Without you

It's in my head
This price I pay
It's in my head
All because of you

I'm broken and betrayed
Just tell me your leaving
Before I finally cave in
Take away this pain
It's pulling me under
Your dragging me under

I'm broken and betrayed
I'm broken and betrayed
And that's the price I pay
For breaking a lifeline
Spending a lifetime

I don't want to look back
Without you

I don't want to look back
