

Footsteps

Pop Evil

I've been counting all my steps
All my no's just turned to yes
Silently I must confess
My troubled history

That's washed away all my sins
Starting over once again
This is where it all begins
It's right in front of me

Down is not where I belong
This aching heart wont turn to stone
There's a fire inside these bones
It was meant to be

I see the world still full of light
How could I ever be so blind
I still haven't lost my fight
That haunts me in my sleep

I feel like waking up
I've had this dream before
I'll take these footsteps
go higher, go higher
I've walked an empty mile
Wore down this lonely soul
I'll take these footsteps
go higher, go higher
higher, go higher
higher, higher

I know only time will tell
If all the cards will treat me well
Cuz this hand that I been dealt
Keeps me wondering

So now here I turn the page
I've learned to silence all my rage
Tell me who can really say
What will tomorrow bring

I feel like waking up
I've had this dream before
I'll take these footsteps
go higher, go higher
I've walked an empty mile
Wore down this lonely soul
I'll take these footsteps
go higher, go higher
higher, go higher
higher, higher

I'll find you, so far away
I'll find you, after all
I'll find you, so far away
I'll find you, after all

(I'll find you)
I feel like waking up
(So far away)
I've had this dream before
(I'll find you)
I'll take these footsteps
(After all)
go higher, go higher
(I'll find you)
I've walked an empty mile
(So far away)
Wore down this lonely soul
(I'll find you)
I'll take these footsteps
(After all)
go higher, go higher

(I'll find you)
I feel like waking up
(So far away)
I've had this dream before
(I'll find you)
I'll take these footsteps
(After all)
go higher, go higher
(I'll find you)
I've walked an empty mile
(So far away)
Wore down this lonely soul
(I'll find you)
I'll take these footsteps
(After all)
go higher, go higher

I feel like waking up
I've had this dream before
I'll take these footsteps
go higher, higher
