

Jupiter In June

Pop Evil

Jupiter in June
I saw your eyes
Like the moon stole the sky
I swear you were mine
These beautiful prison walls
Alone in my mind
Was it all a miracle
Or just a waste of time

Wherever you are
You're so far away
Where ever you go
I'll follow
We made our mistakes
This price that we pay
I'll find away
To get over you

Jupiter in June
When do words become lies
Winter turns to spring
Kiss our summer goodbye
Was it all just a crying shame
No more miracles
No more wasted time

My world is caving in I promise
Things will be better on the other side
You're all I've ever wanted
But this all falls back on you
