

Gasoline

Porcelain and The Tramps

Don't get in my face
Don't invade my space
I'll put you in your place
I'll only tell you once
I'll never tell you twice
And this is me being nice

You cross me once and you'll see
It's like a match in gasoline
Gasoline

'Cause I'm highly flammable
A caged up animal
I will go off for you
You better take it back
I'm about to snap
I will go off on you, oh

When it's your turn
You'll get your lesson learned
You'll be blister burnt
My adrenaline is going to do you in
I'm seeing red again

You cross me once and you'll see
It's like a match in gasoline
Gasoline

'Cause I'm highly flammable
A caged up animal
I will go off on you
You better take it back
I'm about to snap
I will go off on you, oh

I'm highly flammable, a caged up animal
I will go off on you
Better take it back, I'm about to snap
I will go off on you

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh

You cross me once and you'll see
It's like a match in gasoline
Gasoline

'Cause I'm highly flammable
A caged up animal
I will go off on you
You better take it back
I'm about to snap
I will go off on you, oh

I'm highly flammable, a caged up animal
I will go off on you
Better take it back, I'm about to snap

I will go off on you

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Ooh, ooh, ooh

I will go off on you

I'm highly flammable, a caged up animal

I will go off on you
