

Kisses Lose Their Charm

Porcelain Black

I've been waiting for something
To feel real and I thought I found with you
I thought it was true
I laid in my heart
And baby you know
That I don't see when you're going away
I don't see when you're going away

'Cause kisses lose their charm
If we end up alone
Kisses lose their charm
You are the foreign on my road
'Cause we are burning down
Would you come in back for more?
We are burning down
This is what you have in store
We are burning down
We are burning down
We are burning down
This is what you have in store

Waiting for when I
I found it with you, I thought it was true
I laid in my heart
And baby you know
That I don't see when you're going away
I don't see when you're going away

'Cause kisses lose their charm
If we end up alone
Kisses lose their charm
You are the foreign on my road
'Cause we are burning down
Would you come in back for more?
We are burning down
This is what you have in store
We are burning down
We are burning down
We are burning down
This is what you have in store
