The Rest Will Flow

Porcupine Tree

I was pretending to be floating strong But I was sinking In to still water

Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow

Then out of darkness I found I could still feel Something good
Out of the woods

Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow

One simple thing that I never could see But now I know
All of the rest will flow

Stay with me my angel I found you Now I don't feel low All of the rest will flow

Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow
