Burning In Hell

Possessed

Death has beckoned you to hell You can't escape my evil spell Past the gates, evil fate

Into the depths cast to burn
Unseen terror life of doom
Tragic, black magic

Sorrow in your afterlife Victim of your sins tonight My grasp will last

Nightmares of eternity Forgotten souls and tyranny You lived, now die

No life no death no future here Infinite horror screams of fear Your flesh, decayed

Run and hide there's no relief Pounding hearts is full of grief Screams, dreams

No one hears you scream at night Demons own your soul with might Illusions, delusions

Roasted in the flames of hell Beware the cast the evil spell Burning, yearning

Dreams become reality
You can't outlive infinity
Burning in Hell

Prowling through the night Like a bad dream Stalking out your prey Hear the victims scream

Driven by the vision Ruling your domain Lurking in the shadows Driving you insane

Know that you're not crazy
Nothing you remember
Mind is so blank
And your thoughts become a hinder

Know there's something evil Hiding in your mind Waiting for the moment To sneak up from behind

Death has beckoned you to hell

You can't escape my evil spell Past the gates, evil fate

Into the depths cast to burn
Unseen terror life of doom
Tragic, black magic

Sorrow in your afterlife Victim of your sins tonight My grasp will last

Nightmares of eternity Forgotten souls and tyranny You lived, now die

No life no death no future here Infinite horror screams of fear Your flesh, decayed

Run and hide there's no relief Pounding hearts is full of grief Burning in Hell
