Satan's Curse

Hell, evil, Satan's curse
From the sky it falls
Metal burns my fucking brain
Satan took the fall
Deceased men from hell and hatred
Pollution to mankind
Antichrist my son from hell
I will make you mine

You'll die there's no time to run from hell You lied the witch has cast her spell Your sins will be paid for and sacrificed This is the price - Satan's curse

Sin, hate, eternal death Decayed my flesh I rot Running below Satan's home Lord of Hell he's not Lust for evil, son of Hell Beneath the smoke I rise Flames torch my body A sinner's solar eyes

Sacrifice your soul will be doomed Your evil friends who have deceived you Satan's curse enters your soul Beneath you'll burn - Satan's curse

Sky fades to black As the heavens diminish Evil takes over The world is finished

Hell, evil, Satan's curse From the sky it falls Metal burns my fucking brain Satan took the fall Deceased men from hell and hatred Pollution to mankind Antichrist my son from hell I will make you mine

You'll die there's no time to run from hell You lied the witch has cast her spell Your sins will be paid for and sacrificed This is the price - Satan's curse
